Saturday, October 9 1703

From the Leiden Gazette, dated October 9.

THEY write from Rome of the 15th, that ſeveral Prieſts, Nuns, and other Perſons, have been ſeiz'd and confin'd in the Priſon of the Inquiſition for holding erroneous Opinions: But that the Count de Carandini who is in the ſame Priſon, has more liberty than was at firſt allow'd him, and has obtain'd leave to write to the Counteſs his Wife, who is retir'd to a Relation's Houſe, and not into a Convent as was at firſt reported: That on the contrary Prince Vahini is more cloſely confin'd in the Caſtle of St. Angelo, for giving the Lieutenant Governour of that Caſtle opprobrious Language, and offering to ſtrike a Sentinel: And that his Friends had interceded with the Pope, that he might be releas'd out of Priſon, promiſing for him that he ſhould confine himſelf to Civita Vecchia; But his Holineſs refuſes to ſet him at Liberty, unleſs the Prince himſelf will give 30000 Crowns Security for his performing what his Friends are ſo ready to promiſe for him.

Hague, October 9. The Miniſters of the Emperor and of the King of Porgugal, make great Inſtances to have the Army keep the Field as long as is poſſible, for fear the Enemies ſhould ſend Detachments to Germany or Spain; and 'tis ſaid the States have diſpatch'd Orders to that purpoſe to their Deputies with the Army. It has been reſolv'd to eſtabliſh ſeveral great Magazines, to the end the Troops may at any time take the Field and eſpecially betimes in the Spring. The new King of Spain, when he comes into this Country, will be lodg'd and treated till he embarks for England, at the Charge of the States; tho' not in form, that is, not by the Officers of the States, but what is requiſite will be provided and left to the ordering of his Majeſty's own Servants: The Ceremoniale obſerv'd towards Charles the Second King of England when he came hither from Breda in order to embark at Scheveling, was conſulted on this occaſion. 'Tis talk'd with great Aſſurance, That the Court of Denmark and the Houſe of Hanover appear to be alarm'd at the Treaty which the Baron de Lilienroot ſign'd lately on the part of the King of Sweden his Maſter, with the Miniſter of the King of Pruſſia; and tho' the Articles of this Treaty are not yet made publick, 'tis ſtrongly preſum'd that the Tenor of one of thoſe Articles is a Marriage between the Prince Royal of Pruſſia and the Princeſs Ulrica the youngeſt Siſter of the King of Sweden: Of this the leſs doubt is made, becauſe Information was ſecretly given to the Courts abovemention'd, that Monſieur de Lilienroot ſent to Gottorp from Hamburg for a Copy of the Articles of Marriage between the late Duke of Holſtein Gottorp and the eldeſt Siſter of the King of Sweden, to make uſe of it as a Pattern. The King of Pruſſia has ſent a noble Preſent to Monſieur de Lilienroot, in recompence for bringing that Treaty to a Concluſion, and that Miniſter has receiv'd Orders at Hamburg to compliment the King of Pruſſia on his Exaltation to the Royal Dignity, but he being afflicted with the Gout in his Feet, and not finding himſelf in a Condition to undertake a Journey, that Ceremony will be perform'd by Monſieur Straelheim who is returning from Vienna. The Umbrage which the King of Denmark and the Houſe of Hanover have taken on this occaſion, will probably forward the Treaty that has been ſome time in agitation between them, and 'tis already given out beforehand, that ſeeing the King of Sweden has acknowledg'd the King of Pruſſia, his Daniſh Majeſty will acknowledge the Ninth Electorate of Hanover, and will contribute towards making a perfect good Underſtanding and Union between the Courts of Zell, Hanover, and Wolfenbuttel. The Miniſters of Sweden and Denmark reſiding here, have within theſe few days given in Memorials to the Miniſters of the States, to demand Reſtitution of certain Ships lately ſeiz'd by the Zealanders; and the Envoy of Sweden has likewiſe made Complaint to the States, of ſeveral Dutch Ships having carried Arms to Nyen for the Muſcovites, which he pretends is contrary to the Alliance between his Maſter and the States.

Falmouth, October 4. This day came in Her Majeſty's Ship the Penzance, with a Pacquet from Rear Admiral Dilks, whom ſhe parted from on the 2d inſtant about 20 Leagues Weſt by South from Scilly. Came in likewiſe the Golden Liberty a Privateer of Fluſhing from cruiſing without Purchaſe.

Plymouth, October 7. On Sunday in the Evening came into our Roads the Roſebud a Privateer of Middlebourg of 6 Guns and 39 Men; ſhe ſail'd on Monday Morning, and on on Tuesday Morning return'd with a French Privateer of Havre de Grace of 4 Guns and 30 Men, which she took 5 Leagues off Portland; the Frenchman did not fire one Gun, but in the chase threw three overboard, and had been out but four days: We can get no News out of them, but they tell a wild Story of 23 great Ships gone for the Coast of Lisbon, that 12 more are fitting out at Brest to follow them, and that the Count de Tholouse is in the Port of Thoulon with 46 Men of War unarm'd.

London, October 8. This Afternoon came certain Advice, that the following Ships are arriv'd at Kingsale from the East-Indies, viz. the Phœnix, Wentworth, Hampshire, Fleet Frigate, John and Mary, belonging to the Old Company. And the Bengall, Arabia Merchant, Macclesfield Galley, and Upton Galley, for the New Company. They came under convoy of the King's Fisher.
